Mary, Virgin and Mother, you who, moved by the Holy Spirit, welcomed the word of life in the depths of your humble faith: as you gave yourself completely to the Eternal One, help us to say our own “yes” to the urgent call, as pressing as ever, to proclaim the good news of Jesus.

Filled with Christ’s presence, you brought joy to John the Baptist, making him exult in the womb of his mother. Brimming over with joy, you sang of the great things done by God. Standing at the foot of the cross with unyielding faith, you received the joyful comfort of the resurrection, and joined the disciples in awaiting the Spirit so that the evangelizing Church might be born.

Obtain for us now a new ardour born of the resurrection, that we may bring to all the Gospel of life which triumphs over death. Give us a holy courage to seek new paths, that the gift of unfading beauty may reach every man and woman.

Virgin of listening and contemplation, Mother of love, Bride of the eternal wedding feast, pray for the Church, whose pure icon you are, that she may never be closed in on herself or lose her passion for establishing God’s kingdom.

Star of the new evangelization, help us to bear radiant witness to communion, service, ardent and generous faith, justice and love of the poor, that the joy of the Gospel may reach to the ends of the earth, illuminating even the fringes of our world.

Mother of the living Gospel, wellspring of happiness for God’s little ones, pray for us. Amen. Alleluia!

Prayer of Pope Francis, at the conclusion of Evangelii Gaudium

You’ve Seen One Catholic School
If You’ve Seen One... You’ve Seen One

• Why do you think this statement rings so true for so many within the Catholic Church?
• Take a moment with someone near you and see if you can’t identify the reason(s) this rings so true.
If You’ve Seen One...

You’ve Seen One

• I would suggest the reason this statement rings so true within the Church is because of a deeply held Catholic social principle.

• The Principle of Subsidiarity – “a community of a higher order should not interfere in the internal life of a community of a lower order, depriving the latter of its functions, but rather should support it in case of need and help to co-ordinate it’s activity with the activities of the rest of society, always with a view to the common good.” (CCC, 1883)

Based upon your current understanding...

• Who owns responsibility for your school?
• What type of governing body do you have?
Who owns Responsibility?

A. Diocese
   Catholic Central and West Catholic

B. Parish
   All the others

C. Interparochial/Regional
   CCCS, ASA, DPA, SJDA

D. Religious Congregation

E. Independent/Private
   MCC, St. Robert
What type of governing body do you have?

- No Board
- Advisory
- Consultative
- Board of Limited (Specified) Jurisdiction
- Jurisdictional
Alternative Governance Models

- No Board – Pastor/CA retains full authority (this is rare today)
- Advisory – Pastor/CA is not bound by advice
- Consultative – Pastor/CA must consult but is not bound by advice
- Board of Limited (Specified) Jurisdiction – Pastor/CA shares delegated authority with board
- Jurisdictional – Board has final authority (these generally are rare in the Roman Catholic Church)

Policy Making (in 2011 only 11% of Catholic school boards)
Why have a Board of Limited Jurisdiction (BoLJ)?

• Signals to board members a high level of trust
• Board members are empowered
• Heightened sense of ownership by board members
• Increased level of involvement by board members
• Board members contribute expert services
Under what conditions does a BoLJ work?

- Clearly defined roles and responsibilities (training instructions)
- Limited or specified jurisdiction through Reserved Powers (see example)
- Willingness to accept delegated authority/responsibility
- Balanced makeup (no more than 40% parents)
- Expert makeup to chair committees
- Work done at the committee level

Progress Toward Better Application of Two Principles of Catholic Social Doctrine

• The Principle of Subsidiarity – “a community of a higher order should not interfere in the internal life of a community of a lower order, depriving the latter of its functions, but rather should support it in case of need and help to co-ordinate it’s activity with the activities of the rest of society, always with a view to the common good.” (CCC, 1883)

• The Principle of Solidarity – “Solidarity is a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to the common good... Solidarity, which flows from faith, is fundamental to the Christian view of social and political organization. Each person is connected to and dependent on all humanity, collectively and individually... It is a unity that binds members of a group together.” (Wikipedia)

Board’s Role in Strategic Planning

• Responsible for the oversight, creation, implementation, and assessment of the school’s strategic plan

• “There are 100 ways to do strategic planning right.” In all cases the plan should be:
  • A result of a community-wide collaborative process (professional facilitation of this process is considered best practice)
  • Responsive to data (accreditation visit report, program effectiveness surveys, Catholic identity surveys, annual progress reports, etc.)
  • Aligned to and/or informed by the diocesan Catholic Schools: Bridging Faith and Future strategic plan
  • A living document that becomes THE AGENDA for all internal (faculty and staff) and external (board and administration) school improvement efforts
