
LITURGY OF THE WORD

A brief passage from Sacred Scripture may be read, e.g.:

(Jn 14:23) Jesus says: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Now let us pray together to the Father in the words given us by our Lord Jesus Christ: All say: Our Father....

HOLY COMMUNION

The minister shows the Holy Eucharist, saying:

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

R. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The minister presents the host to the sick person, saying:

The Body of Christ. R. Amen.

After Communion a period of silence may be observed. The minister then says the concluding prayer:

Let us pray.

All powerful and ever-living God, may the body and blood of Christ, your Son, be for our brother (sister) N. a lasting remedy for body and soul. Through Christ Our Lord.

R. Amen.

CONCLUDING RITE

Then the minister invokes God’s blessing and, crossing him— or herself, says:

May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

COMMUNION OF THE SICK

by an Extraordinary Minister

GREETING

The minister greets the sick person and others present using this or another customary greeting from Scripture:

Peace be with this house and with all who live here.

The minister places the Blessed Sacrament on the table, and all adore it.

PENITENTIAL ACT

The minister invites the sick person and those present to recall their sins and repent of them.

My brothers and sisters, to prepare ourselves for this celebration, let us call to mind our sins.

A pause for silent reflection follows.

I confess to almighty God ...

and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Or:

By your Paschal Mystery you have won for us salvation: Lord have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

You renew among us now the wonders of your Passion: Christ have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

When we receive your Body, you share with us your Paschal sacrifice: Lord, have mercy. R. Lord, have mercy.

The minister concludes:

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. R. Amen.
